Maths Challenge

On Thursday students took part in the Junior Maths Challenge. Results will be with us within a month. For your interest, have a go at the following question.

20. A cyclic quadrilateral has all four vertices on the circumference of a circle. Brahmagupta (598–670AD) gave the following formula for the area, A , of a cyclic quadrilateral whose edges have lengths a, b, c, d : $A = \sqrt{(s-a)(s-b)(s-c)(s-d)}$, where s is half of the perimeter of the quadrilateral.

What is the area of the cyclic quadrilateral with sides of length 4 cm, 5 cm, 7 cm and 10 cm?

A 6 cm^2 B 13 cm^2 C 26 cm^2 D 30 cm^2 E 36 cm^2

Sainsbury's Active Kids Vouchers

This is the final week that Sainsbury's will be issuing Active Kids vouchers – 3rd May will be the last day they will be handed out. So far we have collected 1195 vouchers. So if you're shopping in Sainsbury's this weekend, please do ask for vouchers and bring them into school. Every voucher makes a difference to the amount of school sports equipment we can receive.

Cycling Competition

Please note the change of date for this competition; it will now be held on 9th June at Waldegrave School.

You must let Mr O'Sullivan know if you are interested in taking part in the free training session on the 19th May; the team will be picked from this group.

National Geographic

Our thanks go out to Mr and Mrs Newman who have kindly donated a subscription to National Geographic. It is great to see the development of this kind of literature which will sit nicely next to our 'This Week' subscription donated by Ms Ruppert.

Feedback

We received some lovely feedback from a member of the public regarding our students recently.

"A local resident who knows Turing House mentioned an experience she had this morning on the bus. She was travelling on the 281 and there were a group of Turing House students present. The traffic was heavy and they asked the driver if he would be able to open the doors before the official stop; he did. She said she would have been surprised if just one of the boys had thanked the driver but was astonished that every one of them did."

Well done Turing House students!

Warhammer

Sixteen students stayed on Thursday afternoon for a combination of gaming and painting. Many thanks to Mikey, Louis and Ben for getting things off the ground.

Punctuality Update

We are pleased to say that having recently analysed students' punctuality the vast majority are here on time and in-fact many get here at silly o'clock for Table Tennis, fitness club and even Warhammer painting.

A few students however have formed a habit of arriving just on time or a little late. We are following this up with them and you may well find an occasional text from us to alert you to this having happened. We are very grateful for your ongoing support.

Ellery Hall Open Day

On Thursday last week, we were honoured to provide the musical entertainment at Ellery Hall's annual Open Day event. Our choir have been loving visiting and singing at Ellery Hall every Tuesday since before Christmas, so it was an exciting opportunity for us to share more of the musical talent of the students with its members.

The concert was very much Beatles-based, with the Turing House Band opening with 'Can't Buy Me Love' and 'Yellow Submarine', which the audience joined in singing with gusto!

We also had a number of beautiful solo performances from Phoebe, Sam, Lilly, Eita and Joe, as well as a quartet who sang 'I Dreamed a Dream' from the much-loved musical, Les Miserables. Emma also performed a gorgeous solo dance number that she had choreographed herself. With the Turing House dancers performing impressively and another short set from the Turing House Band, it was an hour's worth of high quality entertainment, enjoyed by everyone – including the Mayor!

It was the hour afterwards that was perhaps more important, though. Following the concert, our students helped to serve tea and refreshments to the members, as well as simply sitting and chatting with them, strengthening the friendships and bonds that have already started to form over the Tuesdays we have been visiting. It was an absolutely lovely afternoon! Thank you Ellery Hall for inviting us to perform and continuing to make us feel so welcome each week; thank you also to all the parents and relatives who came to support the event.

Healthy Tip of the Week – A new feature!

Drink 8 glasses of water a day (1.5-2 litres) to keep you hydrated!
